

NATIONAL TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY OF UKRAINE "IGOR SIKORSKY KYIV POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE"

COMMERCIAL PROPOSAL ON COOPERATION BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY AND COMPANIES

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

The National Technical University of Ukraine "Igor Sikorsky Kyiv Polytechnic Institute" (Igor Sikorsky KPI) is the largest Ukrainian University and one of the largest technical universities in Europe. It consists of 18 faculties, 7 educational and research institutions (including military one), joint Ukrainian-German faculty of mechanical engineering, 15 research institutes and scientific centers, design bureaus and other institutions.

The University is a national autonomous higher educational institution of research type, accredited with the status of a higher educational institution of the IV level and has the right to carry out educational activities aimed at training bachelors, masters, doctors of philosophy (Ph.D.) and doctors of sciences.

The University has a preparatory Department where foreign students study subjects that are necessary for further mastering of the University program.

PURPOSE OF COOPERATION

Obtaining of real economic results and a positive social effect by the parties.

MECHANISM FOR IMPLEMENTING THE COOPERATION

Cooperation between the Igor Sikorsky KPI and the company can be realized through the creation of joint center "KPI-company" in Ukraine (on the base of the Igor Sikorsky KPI). Foundation of the Center will allow the implementation of all planned activities, as well as coordination of cooperation, its directions and forms, taking into account the interests of the parties.

DIRECTIONS OF COOPERATION

Educational services

- Establishing of joint training centers for retraining and advanced training of the companies' specialists;
- Partnership in joint educational projects;

- Joint development of individual educational programs and courses for company;
- Participation in the implementation of the network educational programs (with the participation of the university and the company, that will be the base of delivering the practical skills for students / trainees);
- Corporate education – target training program, fitted to the specifics of the company;
- Joint drafting out and publication of textbooks and manuals;
- Joint work on the development of distance learning technologies;
- Conducting of joint scientific and methodological conferences;
- Practical training of students and teachers in the company;
- Participation of the companies' experts in the lectures and seminars / workshops for students
- Organization of summer schools;
- Consultative support of the current activities of the companies.

Area of Science

- Co-financing of research projects;
- Partnership in the publications;
- Participation in research grants;
- Establishment of laboratories / demonstration classes on a basis of the Igor Sikorsky KPI.

Additionally

- Carrying out of group of actions aimed at the commercial development of the Igor Sikorsky KPI scientific findings;
- Marketing research to detect potential customers and consumer of high technology products of the company;
- Recruitment of the best students of University for the companies;
- Payment of scholarships to students selected by the company;
- Carrying out of contests, programs, and grants that announced the company.

