

Course: Investment

LECTURERS: Natalia Skorobogatova, Ph.D. Associate Professor

LANGUAGES OF EDUCATION: Russian, English

THE SUBJECT OF THE EDUCATIONAL COURSE: the study of the methodology of investment and investment activities at different levels, methodical approaches to determining the effectiveness of real and financial investments

THE GOAL of the course includes the formation of the following abilities of students:

- ❖ To be able to a comprehensive understanding of the investment process of enterprises of different ownership forms, and at the international level;
- ❖ To be able to analyze the specific economic situations and to solve practical problems related to the investment in current and non-current assets of enterprises and organizations, and influence decision subjects of strategic and management decisions
- ❖ To be able to conclude the expediency of attraction of various sources of financing investment projects, taking into account the risk factors and uncertainties

THE MAIN TASK OF THE EDUCATIONAL COURSE

Following the demands of an educational-professional program, after the finishing of this course must demonstrate such learning outcomes:

Knowledge:

- ✓ Of the essence of investments, their efficiency, and expediency of investment of resources
- ✓ Of the techniques of financial analysis of the investment activity of the enterprise
- ✓ Of the features of legal regulation of economic relations arising between subjects of investment activity
- ✓ Of the basics of investment analysis methodology
- ✓ Of the methods of financial planning and monitoring of investment activity in the enterprise
- ✓ Of the methodological approaches to the determination of the estimated cost of construction
- ✓ Of the features of the investment with foreign capital

Skills:

- ✓ to identify the objects and subjects of investment activity
- ✓ to organize data of accounting documents following the goal of further investment analysis
- ✓ to determine the calculated values and the economic content of the performance of investments
- ✓ to solve specific practical problems on the formation of the investment portfolio, evaluate its effectiveness, developing a business plan for the investment project
- ✓ to solve problematic situations that arise in the process of investing, the implementation of joint investment

Experience:

- ✓ of application of the knowledge on the methodology of investment and investment analysis in carrying out analytical work and research
- ✓ of business plan development of real investment projects and feasibility studies for investment
- ✓ of providing proposals regarding the feasibility of the selected investment projects

COURSE DURATION: 36 academic hours of lectures, 36 academic hours of seminars

REQUIREMENTS TO STUDENTS: knowledge in the field of business economics, economic analysis, basics of economic theory

