

Course: «International Economic Activity of Ukraine»

Lecturers: Yaroslava Glushchenko, Ph.D., Assoc

Languages: Ukrainian, Russian

The subject of the educational course: the study of organizational and economic relations and regulatory entities in the implementation and development of forms of international economic activity of Ukraine.

The goal of the course includes the formation of the following abilities of students:

- ❖ to determine the essence and maintenance of external economic processes;
- ❖ to expose conformities to law and pre-conditions of changes of the state of affairs of international markets;
- ❖ to analyze consequences and results of government control of external economic sphere;
- ❖ to estimate the state, efficiency, and prospects of participation of Ukraine in integration processes and joint decision of global problems;
- ❖ to apply the instruments of adjusting international economic activity on the macro-and microlevel.

The main task of the educational course:

According to the requirements of the program of the course, students after mastering academic discipline should demonstrate results of studies

Knowledge:

- ✓ basic principles of development of external economic connections of the economy of Ukraine;
- ✓ benefits of an open economy for the development of international economic activity;
- ✓ Ukraine's position on the international capital market and investment ;
- ✓ modern world market of labor;
- ✓ principles of realization of external economic activity;
- ✓ classifications of economic methods of external economic politics, external economic connections, operations, trade organizations, carrying out of external economic activity;
- ✓ methods and facilities of realization of external economic activity;
- ✓ legislative acts of Ukraine governing disputes in foreign trade;
- ✓ basic principles of international economic law;
- ✓ - forms of international economic cooperation.

Skills:

- ✓ to organize and conduct negotiations in the process of entering into international contracts;
- ✓ to analyze the structure of the balance of payments;
- ✓ to calculate price proposals for international contracts of sale;
- ✓ to analyze the forms of countertrade;
- ✓ to determine the final cost of an international contract following the different base terms of contracts.

Experience:

- ✓ preparation of development plans and export-import operations;
- ✓ analysis of the performance of the export-import operations at the enterprise level;
- ✓ evaluation of the various types of operations of purchase and sale of goods;
- ✓ monitoring the implementation of international agreements.

Course duration: 36 academic hours of lectures, 36 academic hours of seminars.

Requirements to students: knowledge of the nature and content of foreign economic processes, methods and forms of international trade, investment and monetary cooperation.

